

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY

Summary of Requirements:

The Standard requires that top Management defines the Organisation's OH&S Policy and ensures that it:

- a) Is appropriate to the Organisation and its OH&S risks.
- b) Includes a commitment to continual improvement in OH&S.
- c) Includes a commitment to comply with current applicable OH&S legislation and all other relevant requirements.
- d) Provides the framework for setting and reviewing OH&S objectives and targets.
- e) Is communicated to all persons under the control of the Organisation.
- f) Is available to all other interested parties.
- g) Is periodically reviewed and updated when required.

OH&S POLICY STATEMENT

The Organisation remains aware of its responsibilities relating to OH&S matters throughout its business activities.

By Management Review and staff training the Organisation ensures that its performance relating to OH&S matters is subject to continual improvement.

The Organisation complies with all OH&S legislation and regulations applicable to its activities and to any other requirements to which the Organisation may subscribe in particular in relation to the provision of: offshore catering and hotel services, onshore catering and hospitality services, facilities management, functions and events.

The H&S Policy, held as part of the H&S System, is maintained by regular review and is communicated to all of the Organisation's employees, contractors, suppliers and sub-contractors.

The H&S Policy is made available to all interested parties including members of the general public.

Signed:  Date: 1/7/19 Policy Last Reviewed: July 2019
Peter Bruce
Chief Executive Officer